Jaci Bailey Pizzuto

If supporting young Australian designers is on the top of your list of fashion priorities we suggest you check out Jaci Bailey's AW09 collection. T-shirt dresses and blazers are a key focus of the range, making the collection refreshingly wearable.

Only six years after graduating in fashion design, Susie-Rose Vella is an exhibitor at RAFW and has her Pizzuto label stocked in over 200 hundred stores in Australia and overseas. The current AW08 collection consists of silk print dresses, distinctive jackets, embellished tops and winter staples in chocolates, blacks, whites and turquoises.

An ode to no one

Stocked at Fat stores nationally, the AW09 range of an ode to no one nearly sold out in a week (here's a small sample of the range) – this label is one to watch out for with stockists for the SS range steadily growing. www.anodetonoone.com
